“ We wish to extend our heartfelt sympathy to all of Gloria's family for your tremendous loss. We had become acquainted with Gloria when George served on the school board. Through the years, we would see her at Huntington Alert meetings, at rummage sales and auctions. We shared a love for old architecture and antiques. She always greeted us with her lovely smile. In fact, we can't remember seeing her without a beautiful smile on her face.

“ I was very shocked and saddened to hear about Gloria. We came to know Gloria through her work with InSource. She was a great ally at every case conference. Whenever I called with a problem or question, she was always there. Because of her, my son's case conferences were on a more equal basis. Advocacy, parental rights, and InSource have all become synonymous with Gloria Wall for those she has helped. She will be greatly missed by those she helped.

“ I fought with our school system for over 3 years to get him an IEP. When I learned about Insource, Gloria came to my rescue and within 2 meetings, we had the IEP. She knew her business and her heart was for the children. I always was more relaxed when she was with me because I knew she would get my son what he needed. She is already sorely missed.

Had not seen Gloria in probably well over 40 years. I do remember her pretty smile. Her grandma Leonard and my grandma Westrick were sisters, so my brother David Shideler and I are on that family tree somewhere! Deepest sympathy to the family. May you find peace.

“ Gloria empowered me as a parent advocate, I will forever be grateful to her. She was so knowledgable, with such grace. All she had to do was nod her head in meetings, and the school never disagreed because, they knew, that she knew the special education laws. Thank you so much for sharing your wife, mother and grandma. She was indeed a very special person.

“Our thoughts and prayers are with the Wall family. We have lost a valued friend and colleague and will miss her as will all of those with whom she crossed paths. She earned the respect of all of those with whom she came into contact . . . the families she supported, the school and agency personnel with whom she worked and the colleagues with whom she shared a sincere dedication to our mission. We were, indeed, privileged to have had the opportunity to know her, to learn from her and to work with her. She served as an inspiration to all who knew her and admired her dedication to all she did and did so well.

*“Life is a succession of moments. To live each one is to succeed.”
Gloria lived hers well and we’d all agree that she did, indeed, succeed!*
