“ Stephanie was a gentle soul whose life mattered. Visiting her at Hickory Creek made a difference in my life as she always gave more than she received. She always put my life in right perspective.

God in His goodness blessed us through Stephanie. Now she will bless us from heaven.

Now she has heavenly peace!

“ My sweet sister. I love you so much. We had such good times back in the day. You are an angel now. I'm so glad you were in my life. I will see you on the other side, in Jesus Arms

“ I will miss my dear friend Stephanie. She brought so much joy to my life and to others. Always so kind and loving. The little saint that she was and is would kiss our hands when we would visit, it was the sweetest gesture of love. May God give you eternal rest my friend.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Stephanie's passing. May God give you -- her loved ones -- strength, comfort, and peace.

Stephanie was so loving to those who visited her at Hickory Creek, always taking our hands and kissing them. She was very saintly, in her own, gentle way.

Yes, as a Catholic and Secular Franciscan, I pray for her eternal rest. But I also believe that I can quickly add, in good faith: Stephanie Putnam, Friend of God, pray for us.
