“ Aunty Joan was our mother's (Monelle Charles Nobriga's) younger sister. Although we lived in Hawaii, she kept in contact with us through letters and cards. She always remembered our birthdays and special occasions. We were able to travel to Indiana a few times and Joan, Clyde and David came to Hawaii a couple of times. Telephone conversations took place every Saturday in their later years.

I enjoyed many childhood stories told by my mom. I remember that Aunty Joan liked to do needle point, read and chew gum.

Joan Charles Winkler now joins her mother, father, brother and sister in heaven. Their family is complete.

God bless them all.
