“ I will always be Thankful for you !! My first memory of you was when you lived over on Court St. and I came into your home a stranger but you opened your arms to me. A stranger that had no family here and you made me family. We baked together and talked about books. We had those things in common and as life progressed you became my Grandmother. Something I did not have growing up. I will forever be Grateful. That smile and twinkle in your eye will never be forgotten. LADY BUG you will Forever be that name to me !! We love you and miss you already. But I know God has his arms wrapped around you. We talked about you dancing through the tulips and lilies and this I know you will be doing. The spunk and strength you had I hope I have in my last days. We love you 🧡
