

Allen Stewart Williams

October 4, 1923 - June 6, 2018

Allen Stewart Williams, age 94, of Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, met his Savior Wednesday, June 6, 2018 at Heritage Pointe of Huntington.

Born on October 4, 1923 in Dix Run, PA, he was the son of the late Kenzie A. and Margaret Summers Williams. On May 12, 1951 he married Martha J. Parsons in Julian, Pennsylvania; she preceded him in death on December 22, 2011 after 60 years of marriage. Stewart was a member of the First Baptist Church of Bellefonte, where he served as a Deacon and Sunday school teacher. He attended Bellefonte High School and was employed by Cerro Metal Products, having worked in the forge department for 43 years, retiring in 1987. He loved hunting and gardening and was known for helping others with his carpentry, mechanical, plumbing, and electrical skills. At Heritage Pointe he was known and loved for entertaining others with his harmonica, his singing, and carving hundreds of wooden pliers. Stewart was known there as "the music man." He faithfully served in World War II in the European Theatre of Operation (ETO) as a Rifleman in Company "B," 264th Infantry, 66th Black Panther Division. He received the Combat and Infantry Badge, World War II Victory Medal, ETO Campaign Metal with two Battle Stars, two Good Conduct Medals, Army of Occupation Medal, and the Bronze Star Medal for Meritorious Service Above and Beyond the Call of Duty.

Stewart is survived by a son, Dennis (Annette) Allen Williams of Tucson, Arizona and a daughter, Debra (Jerry) Williams Davis of Huntington. He is also survived by five grandchildren, Renee Gutierrez, Jenelle Edwards, Jasmine Sullivan, Jesse Davis, and Patrick Davis, and twenty great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a brother, Eugene Williams and a sister, Mary Williams Shope.

Visitation and funeral services will be held at Wetzler Funeral Services, 206 North Spring Street, Bellefonte, PA at a later date with Pastor Greg Shipe officiating. Burial will be in Oak Ridge Cemetery in Union Township, PA.

Memorial contributions may be made to First Baptist Church, 539 Jacksonville Rd., Bellefonte, PA.

MARSHA FISHER - June 10, 2018 at 05:42 PM

DD

Thank you Marsha. Dad loved Shorty. Now he is with his friends who have gone before him but I miss him terribly.

DD

Thank you Nancy. His favorite place was beside the fireplace. That's always the first place my eyes would go when I walked in.

“ Mr Williams shared his talents with many of the residents at Heritage of Huntington along with their families. His smile came first, then music, and then if you were lucky - pliers! I am proud to cherish a pair... Thank you Allen Williams. May your kindness be sacred memories for your children, and may your talents be passed on through your grand children's children.
