“ I met Angela in the summer of 1992. We had just graduated from High school. I went to Manchester and she went to Huntington. We both got a job at Magnetek and became friends very quickly. We spent many nights after work cruising the strip and hanging out with friends we had met along the way. One of my fondest memories is when we went to wabash county fair where she met her husband. We spent hours riding the rides just laughing and having the time of our lives. Over the years we become distant but still maintained a certain level of friendship. She taught me how to be myself and to love unconditionally. I'm going to miss you my friend. I love you always and I'll see you when I get there.
