

Ann E. Howard

April 8, 1934 - December 19, 2019

Ann E. Howard, age 85, of Huntington, died at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, December 19, 2019 at Saint Anne Communities at Victory Noll in Huntington.

There will be no visitation or funeral services.

Ann was born on April 8, 1934 in Gardiner, Maine, the daughter of Lawton and Mildred (Humphrey) Furness. She graduated from high school in 1952 and earned a bachelor's degree from Indiana University Bloomington, where she was a member of Alpha Phi sorority. She was a medical records librarian and a homemaker, married to Robert Howard. Ann was a member of the Antiquarian Society of Fort Wayne and was a breast cancer survivor.

She is survived by sons Brent (Janet) Howard of Fort Wayne and Brad (Jacki) Howard of Oceanside, California, and six grandchildren. Her parents precede her in death.

Tribute Wall

GF

“ In the few months that I knew Ann, I came to realize what a special, delightful person she was. She had a twinkle in her eye and a ready laugh -- but there was a serious aspect too, and she had a growing interest in matters of faith and God. I already miss her, but I would not wish her "back." She's now on the other side of Eternity, where there is "light, happiness, and peace." May you rest in peace, my dear friend. And please pray for us who are on this side of Eternity. ”

George Foster - December 20, 2019 at 10:23 PM

DS

You'll never find another loving person like Skee Howard she also was called Ann by family .I've known her for 27 years I'm never met her up till we went to Fountain Park where we go paint and I was having some trouble with my life and she pretty much took me under her wing and told me things will be all right ! years later I got married to my wife now my wife Jan just fell in love with Skee I totally loving giving person we will miss her and she'll be loved in heaven because she was an angel on earth ! Jan and Doug Rupert

Douglas Rupert SR - December 23, 2019 at 05:22 PM