Anna Mae was born June 30, 1917, in Huntington, Indiana, to Arthur and Clara (McNally) Elsasser. She graduated in 1935 and later married Charles E. Lynn on September 2, 1939 in Huntington. They had one child together whom they also named Charles. They shared 62 years of marriage before he preceded her in death on July 18, 2002.

Anna Mae worked at Schachts Rubber Company prior to being a Secretary at St. Peter's First Community Church as well as being the Choir Director of the church. Anna Mae also led the Junior Choir at The Congregational Church of Huntington.

Anna Mae had many interests. She loved to sing, play the piano, read, sew, work with ceramics, play bingo, and cards; her favorite card game was pinochle. Her favorite song to sing was Amazing Grace and she was a self-taught piano player who had a passion to play. Her favorite song to play was Moon Glow on the piano. She was a dedicated Cubs fan. She was a member Women's Club and the Delta Theta Tau Sorority for 66 years and also recognized for her nearly 60 years of service and dedication with the March of Dimes Foundation as well her 50 years of service with the Democratic Party for Huntington and the State of Indiana. It was because Anna Mae had such great connections with her friends, who surrounded her with love, that she was named April's Resident of the Month at The Tipton House.

One of her son's, fondest memories of her, was nearly 55 years ago when she was attending choir school in North Webster, Indiana, and at the same time the Purdue Varsity Glee Club directed by Dr. Stewart was performing at the same location. While mom was attending the Glee Club Concert she was randomly selected to come on stage and sing with the glee club and she also sang a solo. Mom was quite a spark Plug and she really got the crowd wound up to the point that many people thought that she was a plant, "No Plant, Just MOM!"

Anna Mae is survived by her son - Charles E. (Norma) Lynn, II of Cape Coral, Florida; four sisters - Kathryn "Kay" Delauter of Huntington, Maxine Ungerer of Twinsburg, Ohio, Betty Baumgardner of North Manchester and Mildred Binder of Huntington; four grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, eight great great-grandchildren and a niece - Cindy Homier of Huntington. Her parents, husband, a brother - Arthur Roy Elsasser, Jr., preceded her in death.

“ Charlie and family-Mother (Freda Lynn VW) and I were so sorry to hear about Anna Mae's passing. What an amazing woman she was! I enjoyed the genealogy calls I made to her and the discussions we had, and she was always so sharp in remembering facts. My prayers are with all of you.

“ I have know Anna Mae for most of my life. She's the one that started me singing in the Jr Choir at the Conragational Christian church. My favorite memory is how she made us roll our "r's" in "The Little Drummer Boy." Boy did we practice. I usually saw her at many of the church's functions for many years after. Chuck and my Dad worked on the Erie RR together and Mom and Dad became good friends of the Lynn's. I hope my Mom & Dad were there to greet her when she passed. Nancy "Hendry" Riggs

“ Like so many around NE Indiana, I was blessed by Anna Mae's dedication as a volunteer to the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation. She was an amazingly diligent advocate for our mothers and babies for decades and always with a willing smile. In ways she often never knew, she literally helped save lives. I'm grateful for having shared a few years with her...

“ Aunt Maudy, as my family lovingly called her, was a very special lady. She was always doing what she could to help others. I know she is happy now, because she is with my Uncle Evan, who she always called her "big Guy".
