

Anna McHenry

September 3, 1914 - December 19, 2009

Anna McHenry, age 95, resident of Miller's Merry Manor departed this life on Saturday, December 19, 2009 to be with the Lord.

Anna was born on September 3, 1914, in Markle, Indiana the daughter of Jesse and Pearl (Gamble) Hughes. She graduated from the Roanoke High School. Anna married Verl Everett McHenry on July 13, 1933 in Huntington. He preceded her in death on July 19, 1994.

Anna and her husband Verl were co-owners of McHenry Tire and Television Service with stores located in Huntington and Akron, Indiana. They also managed Beaty's Roller Rink until it closed. Anna retired from the Huntington Community School Corporation after many years of service as a school bus driver. Anna was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church in Huntington.

Her strength, love, and devotion touched each family member's life. Anna's passion for serving others was the cornerstone of her life.

Survivors include one son – Mark (Linda) McHenry of Huntington; two daughters – Janet (Kenneth) Suter of Fort Wayne and Charlotte (Steve) Kaylor of Huntington; two half brothers – Bob (Norma) Hughes of Waynedale, Indiana and Rex (Betty) Hughes of Jonesboro, Indiana; twelve grandchildren and several great – grandchildren. She is preceded in death by one son – Verl

Richard McHenry, two half brothers – V.T. and Jack Hughes, one half sister – Jean Lockwood, one grandson – Markie Byrd and three great - grandchildren.

A private family viewing prior to graveside services was held as requested by Anna. Burial was in the Mount Hope Cemetery on Tuesday, December 22, 2009 with clergy Rex Hughes officiating. Pallbearers were Christopher J. Tellef, Christopher P. Tellef, Kelly C. Tellef, Mark McHenry, Jr., Samuel McHenry, Kenneth Suter, Steve Kaylor, Richard McHenry, and Benjamin McHenry.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Riley Hospital for Children and/or the Ronald McDonald House in memory of her grandson Markie Byrd in care of Bailey – Love Mortuary, 35 West Park Drive, Huntington, Indiana, 46750.

Tribute Wall

“ My wonderful Grandmother will truly be missed. I have truly appreciated the great times we have had with her and thank God for her. I will see you in heaven.##imported-begin##Eric V. McHenry, Sr.##imported-end##

December 27, 2009 at 08:48 PM