I have kept touch with her via facebook and can see she loved life and her family. She will be dearly missed. I also recently lost my nephew last week. He was 23 and we loved him so. Losing people we care about has not been the easiest tribulation. On behalf of The Gearheart family our condolences to her parents, sons, and anyone she loved or loved her. We will lift you in our prayers.*

Rod and I were once a very big part of Annette's life and I will always remember all of the fun we had together.....the trip to Florida, all of the great weekends we had. Even though we weren't as close as we used to be, I know that she knew that I cared about her still. “ Diana, Tom, Tommy Kelly & Patty, I am so very sorry to hear of Annette's death. Diana, only a mother can imagine your brokenness right now. I have no words that will express my heart felt sorrow. Annette was always one of Trisha's favorite friends of mine & Dave's. She was a joy to have in our home growing up with all those neat kids from that yr. And fit in as well as one of our own. You all will be in our prayers, as will her sons, in the coming days. If there is anything I can do, or you ever just need an ear, a shoulder or someone to share many happy memories. I am here
Love to you all
