“ I met Barb when we took care of her twin sister. I knew the first time I met her that she would become very special to me. The laughs we shared were priceless with her sister. The love she shared and the joy that she and her sister had together made it enjoyable every time I went. God Bless you Barb. You and your sister are together again tap dancing for everyone. Sending prayers and love to Sue and Carl, and the rest of her family. Lori Pierson
