“ Barb was my cousin. Our families were not close after my parents' divorce. But we were able to re-establish family ties when we became mothers ourselves. I wish we had known each other sooner. Enjoyed our times together. Always left with sore cheeks from laughing so much. Rest in Peace. Love. Rochelle Lenwell Walburn.

“ So sorry to read of Barbara's passing. I work for help at home and served Barb since January of this year. She loved my cooking even though the majority of things I cooked were Barb's recipes. I will miss Barb. My prayers are with your family.

“ Julie and Jason's mom will not be forgotten soon:

My best memory is vacationing with her, Jason (baby) and Ron near Iron Mt. Michigan.

I also remember riding with her in a bright red Plymouth. "going very fast"

“ Barb was one of my good friends since high school. She was always there for me no matter what. She had a huge heart. She was always worrying about others at the expense of herself. I could always count on her as a soft place to fall. I will miss her very much. RIP.

“ Jason, I'm so sorry to hear of your mothers passing. I know this is a heartbreaking time for you and Deb. Wish I could be there for you both, to comfort you, give big hugs and let you know how very much I love you. You and Deb will be in my thoughts and my prayers. Love you forever and always, Katie. xoxoxoxo.

“ I've been working in home for Barb this year, I will miss our morning chats, her stories and jokes. She would always warn me if it was an ornery day, goofy or sleepy. She told it like it was, and could be stubborn. Barbara was my first client and I will miss her greatly. Prayers of peace and comfort for her family and friends.

“ Barb was an unforgettable lady, feisty and sweet all rolled into one. She loved spoiling my sister and I (her nieces) and we milked it for all we could. Have fond memories of her making us grilled cheese after grilled cheese while we colored at the breakfast counter and her letting us stay up late during cousin sleepovers. I can't see a Pepsi logo or scratch off ticket and not think of her. :) Jason and Julie, I know there are not words that can really comfort you right now but just know you have an army of shoulders to lean on.

“ Our deepest sympathy on your loss of Barb. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. We use to be neighbors and got to know all of you while you were growing up. And the fun we all had at the parties we both had in Lancaster. Such good memories. Barb will be greatly missed. Especially that smile of hers “ Sending healing prayers to you, Jason and Julie. Mike and I won't be able to make the visitation as I have a health procedure the following day that I will need to prep for. Your mother made me laugh, sometimes, when I wanted to cry. She was good at lifting my spirits up and a damn good towel snapper! She is at peace now and no longer in pain. There are so many memories flooding my mind. The nights we would play spades or euchre at her and your dad's house. The night we played poker there and Bob showed up with the flu and the next day I had the flu and Trina was born. Your mom gave Bob hell for that. I wonder if he remembers? The time she and I went to a refunding convention in Fort Wayne. So many memories. May the rest of your journey be wonderful and glorious, Barb.

“ My heart goes out to you Julie & Jason. Your mom will always hold a special place in my heart. Aunt Barb was one in a million and one of my favorite Aunts. So many memories with you guys growing up. My favorite is Barb chasing my mom in Texas and my silly mom jumping out the bedroom window to try and sneak up on her and in the end my mom broke her ankle on the way down. Only our mom could be so silly. I wish I could be there this Wednesday. Know that I will be thinking of you. Much Love Cousin Trina

“ Jason and Julie, Your Mom was very important to me. I will always and forever have her in my thoughts and prayers. Barb was my best friend for the whole 12 years I knew her. I will miss her smile and that shit eaten grin she would always have on her face. When we would go to the Casino, she would always make it a point to let me know she won more than me, So a couple of years ago my daughter, Britt went with us and Britt was the bragger of the day. Then as the ride home got closer to home I looked over at Barb and she said how much did she win? I said $21, with that shit eaten grin, she smiled and said I beat her I won $21.25 and then she started to rub it in.. No one could fool Barb. Barb was my best friend, my sister.. I miss you, Red...
