“ Dear Wayne, Pam & Karen, Something just told me to day I should check on your Mother. I'm sorry to just be finding this out. She was the best friend I had when I lived in Huntington. We shared a lot of things. Wayne & my Cynthia played together when very young. Your Mother would make you give up a toy to Cindy. Your parents & Charles &. I spent time together & of course you children were in tow. Won't forget that limousine ride through Huntington. That was a fun day w/your Mother & Wayne.
My heart & Prayers go out to all of you, Sue Crain.
