“ I remember walking over to uncle Verne and Aunt Betty's house. I ran away from home. I was about 4-5 years old, at the time, even crossed a busy highway (Etna Ave). My sister Marsha was taking care of me and I had run away a few times, but usually to Charles's (my close neighbor's) house. I don't remember if Charles wasn't home or what but decided to go see Aunt Betty. When I got there she was surprised. She asked me if Marsha knew where I was, and I told Aunt Betty that I had told her I was running away. Aunt Betty walked to her sister's house to use her phone and call my mom Erline, at work. She asked mom if she knew where Becky was and mom said, at home with Marsha. Mom was a bit surprised when Aunt Betty told her no, she's at my house. My mom then called Marsha and asked if she knew where I was and Marsha said, She ran away, probably at Charles's. Pretty sure she was shocked to learn I was at Aunt Betty's! I don't remember getting in trouble for it. But my dad always said things like... don't you like living here with us?... Do you think someone else will love you more than we do? Those things just melted my heart! The way he said it and the look in his eyes. I knew I had hurt and disappointed him and mom. I don't remember ever running away again. Not sure if Marsha got in trouble or not. (sorry sis!) Another memory is, all of the fun all us kids had at Devils Lake, Michigan. Those were great times together!! Aunt Betty's hamburger and noodle casserole!!! YUMM!!! I still make it on occasion, and it is still delicious!
