“ Dear Grandma, i never got to see you much.. but when I did at church or randomly in public, I loved every second of it. your eyes were kind and I knew that you loved me and my sister very very much. and I loved you too, I still do. I really wish we could have talked more and got to know each other better... but maybe god had his own plans for this one. I hope one day that we will meet again and get to talk... what I would do just to sit down with you and have a conversation.. but its ok, you aren't in pain anymore. and thats better than what you were going through. I just want you to know that you were an amazing great grandma, and I love you very much. your great grandson, John Gilbert

“ I am so very sorry for the passing of your mother. Please except my deepest sympathy and prayers. May our Dear Lord and Savior hold you up when you can no longer stand. May He place his right hand on your shoulder and soothe your broken hearts. May Jesus Christ remind you of his sacrifice and promise to still your greif knowing Betty does still live on but in a different way. May you come to smile at her memory instead of mourn. May your family bond together in the Great Light of God and find peace and love. Amen.
