“ Betty was my hair dresser when I moved to Huntington in 1977. We lived at the corner of William & Clark so it was a short walk for me to get a "new do" from Betty. She was always so kind and cheerful. I loved the banter between her and Chuck when he would come over during my appointment. I'm sure she is happy now in heaven as she was a wonderful person here on earth.

“ The Lord gained another angel in heaven. I always enjoyed my talks with Betty when I came with my dad to the shop. I'm going to miss her.
