“ Betty and I met each other when we were both 18. We had the best time cruising the main in pampa and listening to Cindy lauper. Girls just want to have fun. I taught her how to drive a stick. And after that we never missed a beat. She was always such a beautiful person. She loved her mom and we had the best makeup parties. Betty will be missed by so many great friends and loving family. She always spoke about her friend Josh. He was her ride or die. Betty I love you. And miss you.
