Billy the first time I watched you walk down to my soccer game with my mom I thought to myself who in the hell is this man with my mom. After the game we all went out and grabbed a bit to eat. After that day I knew you were going to be a big role in my life. The days go by and the years past and you were always there for me loving me like your own son. When I started having kids I'd never seen you that happy, you didn't care that all they were was grandchildren by marriage and neither did I. And today I bury a father, a man that helped teach me to be the man I am today. I love you man and I can't wait to meet you wherever it is that we meet again and tell you all about what I've accomplished. We all love you Broc AJ Paisleigh Oliver and me. You rest easy we'll take over from here
