

Blaine C. Harp

February 15, 1982 - October 31, 2024

Blaine Chase Harp, 42, of Huntington, passed away Thursday, October 31, 2024.

Blaine was born on February 15, 1982, in Muncie, IN, the son of Kenneth Harp and Debra (Hood) Barnes. He attended Huntington North High School and previously worked as a painter for Steve Reiff Inc. in South Whitley.

Blaine enjoyed the outdoors, camping, hiking, and fishing. He liked to watch baseball and was an avid Yankees fan. Blaine was a movie buff and would quote lines from his favorite movies repeatedly. When he wasn't enjoying the outdoors or watching his favorite movies, he loved listening to a wide genre of music ranging from punk to the oldies. If you were lucky enough you might have even heard him singing to those oldies.

Survivors include his daughter, Allison C. Harp of Huntington, IN; son, Jace A. Harp of Huntington IN; brother, Jimmy Barnes of Goshen, IN; nephew, Dawson J. Koontz; and the mother of his children, Cachet Koontz. He is preceded in death by his father, Kenneth A Harp, mother, Debra Barnes and brother, Kenneth "Bobby" Harp Jr.

A private family service will be held.

Preferred memorials to the Bailey-Love Mortuary to assist with funeral expenses.

Bailey-Love Mortuary, 35 West Park Drive, Huntington, IN 46750.

Please sign the online guest book at www.baileylove.com.

Bailey-Love Mortuary is honored to serve the family of Blaine Chase Harp.

Tribute Wall

“ Just moved back to Fort Wayne, and tried to get a hold of you. Breaks my heart to find out you're gone too. And least you and Bob are together again

Jenn Turkette - June 19 at 08:47 AM

“ Didn't even know, you was a good dude though wished I could have checked on you it's been some years, rest in peace my friend

Randall - October 11, 2025 at 11:09 AM