“ Debbie, Diane and Denise:

Your mother had a very gentle and caring soul. She was always like a big sister to me. I will miss her greatly but I know she is now with my brother in God's care. I have lovely memories of the both of them. God bless you and I love you all.

“ Aunt Bonnie always was the definition of a "Lady". I remember how beautiful she always looked...so well dressed. I remember thinking what a "perfect" house she kept. I remember her warm welcomes when we came to visit. As we say "Goodbye" to her and our Dad this weekend...our hearts will remain full of the memories, the love and their legacy to us. Debbie, Diane, and Denise...know that we hold you close as this weekend unfolds. What a celebration the Clark family in heaven is having and what a great cloud of witnesses are watching over us all. Love to all of you,

Corrine, David and Lorri...your cousins.

“ Debbie, Dianne, Denise and families - We are so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She was a wonderful woman - the ultimate servant. My memories of her are her incredible faith and the way she served her family and others. She was a dear friend to Mom for many years. I have many happy memories of time spent with your family. You are all in our prayers. Much love to you - Don and Susan Garrison
