“ She was was a blessing to be around. Sarcastic and witty, funny but so kind and tenderhearted. Protective of those she loved, forgiving and honest. I remember that she was never afraid to speak her mind and I loved her like family. My heart bleeds for Lyndsey, Lacey, Debbie, Angel, Dustin, and Bonnie's siblings. She will be missed but most of all remembered... in our hearts and in our good memories of her. RIP Bonnie Ward... tell Uncle Mitchell we miss him too.

“ I met Bonnie at Penguin Point we became friends instantly . We had so much fun she taught what true friendship was all about because we were invincible and always together driving around town in that Big red car of her . It was like I was part of her and she was part of me we had so many good times and laughs .And then I got married and moved away and like all things you sort of loose touch with people. Some time back Bonnie and I got back in touch and she hadn't change at all she was the same charismatic person that I knew back in the day and her smile so special to so many people . I will miss her dearly but I am so glad that I will always have lots and lots of fond memories of her now and forever . To all of her Family my thoughts and Prayers are with you today and forever. Know that she will never be forgotten

“ I knew Bonnie from kindergarten on. Over the years I have shared stories, about her flea act. Herman the flea. The whole class would laugh. Mr. Briggs walks in Bonnie was up on her desk seat trying to get Herman off of the light above. He asked her to get down. Shook his head. Thought about it. Then asked her who was she talking to up there. We all loved Bonnie. Skipping school together was a ball. I am so glad I had the pleasure of sharing part of my life with her. I'm sure she is the funniest angel. JOYCE FLOOD (Linda Smith) GOD PLEASE COMFORT HER FAMILY IN JESUS NAME. AMEN.

“ I've only known Bonnie for a couple years now, I was her hair stylist and that may not make us the closest but she was a very good woman. She always had a smile on her face and I was always happy to see her walk in the door. She will be missed very much.
