“ Brenda was my sister, although we were not close due to distance and family dynamics. I loved her just the same. Thought I would share some of my memories with her from when I was little as I had just brought my mom home from the hospital around the time she passed, and did not get a chance before now.

“ Brenda was a vivacious, happy go lucky , generous and thoughtful human being. She had many friends and made a lot of people laugh...before her illness prevented her from doing so. She Was always loving and caring towards her friends and family. Her smile would light up a room and that is what I will always remember about Brenda. She is resting peacefully, finally.

“ Brenda was my mom and dad's neighbor for about 20 years. She loved them and they loved her. Brenda always had a smile for my entire family. She was so full of energy! She was a nice and good (sometimes she misbehaved lol) person. She made my dad laugh a lot! And that made my mom slap him a lot! Lol! Happy memories. Rest in Peace Brenda.
