“ Today is a day that I have thought about you over and over again. I'm not sure why today is worse than any other day, but my heart is aching today. I miss you dearly and I know no matter how much I miss you or want to see you again I will have to wait for one fine day when I too am where you are. I have kept in touch with your son since and he is such a great guy. You two mean more to me than words can ever explain. I wish that me, you, Justin and skibbity bop could just have one more night of staying up til 5 am talking the night away. I miss you so much and I always will...Love you forever and ever! Your dear and close friend, your second son and for a lot of the time best friend! I LOVE YOU! Aaron

“ I miss my mom a lot. She was my best friend. It was us against the world sometimes. I'm still in shock about all of this but all of the people around me have made it a lot easier. I know that i can't ever bring her back and that sucks but she always told me that everything happens for a reason. I may not know what that reason is now or may never know, but i do know that I will never forget my mom. She will always be apart of me in my everyday life. She was the greatest lady I have ever known. She was always there for me and for a lot others. I know that she will always be there for me and she will always be there for others to. It could be a cool breeze across your cheek or a beautiful ray of sun through the coulds. Whatever it is I will always know that is her. I miss you so much and I dont know how to do this without you but I know you will help me. Thank you for everything you have gave me and taught me I will never forget. I love you soooooooooooooooooo much and always will and I will make sure your little grand daughter knows how great her grandma was. I hate saying goodbye but I know we will meet again.

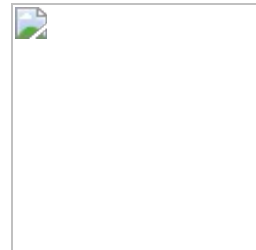

Love you always and forever.

“ I think about you every day. I miss you so much. Justin is being so strong, you would be proud of him. He tells me that he's trying so hard because of you, because that's what you would want. He's been such a wonderful friend and boyfriend to me. And I know he'll be an amazing father. Bridget, I know you already know, but you did a great job raising him. And now he's going to pass that down to his daughter. Everyone says they all know she's gonna be a lot like you. I can't wait. I love you

Bridget, you will be greatly missed but we will never forget you. My heart and prayers go out to you, Justin, and if need anything, please don't hesitate to ask. Scott and I thought the world of your mother and feel the same about you. She is still with you, watching over you and don't forget that. That is what kept me going after loosing my mom and I was right about your age too. We love you!

“ It's hard to believe I met Bridget nearly 20 years ago working with her when we opened the Huntington Wendy's. I worked for her all through high school and part of college. Years later when I would stop in to eat at Applebees we could chat it up like we did way back then. She hadn't changed a bit. She was an amazing boss and person who showed her love for her family first and then her work. Thank you for the memories. Thank you also for being the person that you were - you taught me so much and earned my respect then and now. Rest In Peace, Sweetie. My prayer go out to the family and friends of Bridget.

“ I was in a car accident about 5 years ago near the restaurant Bridget managed. We did not know each other - but she came out and stayed with me until help arrived. It was raining and cold - I was upset. She was very kind to me and I was able to thank her later for "just being there". I'm very sorry to hear of her passing.
