Oh all the memories I have locked in my mind what fun times we kids had together. Aunt Joey always made sure of that with her sweet smile and her fun laugh! She loved all us kids! You could feel it from the little things she would do from cutting up hot dog and putting toothpicks in them just for fun. To the Birthday parties for the August Trio Paul 21 Cathy 22 and myself 23! Untill we met again my beloved Aunt Joey

“ Best memories are when we would go to Aunt Joey in Huntington for holiday. We would go to the basement and get to play on the piano and I especially love the street she leaved on with the trees down the middle of the road. I will always remember her smile. She had the best smile and laugh. I love ❤️ you Aunt Jo and just would like everyone to know how lucky I am to have had you for my Aunt.

Jo was one of our most favorite resident to visit each Tuesday. The dogs loved to visit her. She would talk to each of them and tell them how beautiful they were. We will miss Jo's smile and kind words. Sharon Laupp and Francis(Collie) and all the Three Rivers Visiting Dog Heritage of Huntington teams. Deb Davis and Bandit; Bill and Sherri Banister and Ziggy are Bowie; Bruce Lamar and Baili; Clyde Holmes and Bella;
