“ I’m sorry to hear the news of Carla’s passing. I first met her in 1980 when she worked at First National Bank. Then we became neighbors in 1984 to 2000. Thinking of your family at this difficult time.

“ I have known Carla since she was a young girl due to working with her mother at JC Penney's when it was down town across from Nick's and then 20 years working at Miller's Merry Manor. She was such a cute little girl who grew up to be a wonderful lady. She had such class and was very professional. I hate it that life had taken so much away from her the past few years. Angie you are great for all that you did to take such good care of your mom. My deepest sympathy goes out to Colleen, Angie, Corey, Cindy and all of the grand children. May you find comfort in knowing she is in heaven with her loved ones. Go rest high on that mountain Carla. Linda Carpenter Hanselman

“ So Sorry Angela. I remember always going to her for anything i needed to ask about or any problems while i was working at Millers and she always was so helpful. I also remember going to meetings for the Monument City Cemetery with her and her mom always making cakes for refreshments. She will be at peace now. My heart hurts. RIP Carla. Love Lora

“ Where do I start, Carla was a beautiful person inside & out. Always dressed to the nines. She loved fearsly with her whole heart. Loved her kids & was so proud of them both. We had a lot of good times together & I will cherish those memories forever my friend. To know that you are making your journey on the stairway to heaven makes my heart heal. Your friend forever, Chris Scheerer

“ Colleen, Cory, Angie and family,
We are sending our prayers deepest sympathy to all of you. Carla was a longtime friend of mine.....back in the days from sharing a locker at Crestview while we went to school half days until Huntington North was completed, many years working together at MMM, Lady Viking basketball games and many more great times. She was always so caring for her family, friends and her especially her kids. May your wonderful memories of her give you comfort in this difficult time.....Rest In Peace my dear friend.
