“ There are so many connections to this wonderful family to mention. We were neighbors practically all of our lives. We went to school together at Horace Mann and also grew up in the same church. My fondest memory of Carol is the great friendship she and my mother had. They went to the Y together for water arobics. And it seems they were always on a committee together for their circle at church working on some kind of different decoration or unusual food to serve. I remember the time they tried Irish Soda Bread for a St Patrick's Day breakfast. I don't think they were too impressed with that one! Carol was truly a wonderful mother and woman and will be missed greatly. Thoughts and prayers to Dan and the whole Kimmel family.
