“ *Glen & I send our sympathy to the children, grandchildren & great grandchildren of Carole Quickery .
We knew Carole & John through the Meanderers Winnebago club. They saw our motorhome in our driveway & stopped & invited us to attend a campout. We did, & the rest is history. We are still members & still camp with our camping friends monthly. Carole was a caring person who had a beautiful smile. So sorry for your loss.

“ *My sympathy to Carole's family. My dad, Don Morris, and John were golfing buddies later in life. After they both passed, Carole and my mom, Phyllis, ended up together at Coventry Meadows. They formed a close friendship and actually pulled some ornery shenanigans together. The staff enjoyed them. I am happy they had those times together. God bless you as you remember Carole. “ What fun we had with Carole and John when we were part of the same Love Circle after Marriage Encounter. Many practical jokes (in good fun), camping out, swimming in their pool, dinners, picnics.... She was a lady in every sense. Their children couldn't have asked for more loving parents - my heart goes out to all of you.
