

Charles E. Flaugh Jr.

November 2, 2025

Charles Edward Flaugh Jr., 84, of Huntington, passed away at 2:18 am Sunday, November 2, 2025, at Parkview Regional Medical Center in Fort Wayne.

Charles was born on April 27, 1941, in Huntington, IN, the son of Charles Flaugh Sr. and Ada (Vought) Flaugh. He graduated from Andrews High School with the class of 1960 and married the love of his life Beverly Anne Ballard on April 11, 1970. They shared 50 years of marriage before she preceded him in death on October 18, 2020. He retired from Meldisco Shoe after 21 years of service. Charles was a faithful member of Huntington Church of the Brethren and past member of Andrews Lions Club & Moose Lodge #837 of Huntington.

Charles loved being outdoors. He enjoyed fishing, hunting for mushrooms, and working in his garden. He was passionate about classic cars. He started the Lime City Coursers so he could share this love with others. Since childhood, Charles wanted to be a race car driver. Going to the racetrack made that dream come true. He inspired people by following his interests and dreams. He will be remembered for his love of nature, cars, and bringing people together.

“ God Bless you, Charlie and family. We are saddened to learn of your passing away from this earthly life. I wish that i had come to visit you in Huntington. The last time that i saw your smiling face was probably at the WalMart a few years ago. You were in my brother, Billy Joe Smith's, class at Andrews. I really liked your parents too. I would sometimes see them at the Alumni Banquet. Your sister used to live next to us (my parents) in Andrews (if i recall correctly). Take care, brother, and look forward to visiting with you. and yours, in Heaven. God Bless you all and may the Lord Bless and Comfort you all. PS. Hi there, Roger; i visited yesterday with Everett Goings & his wife, April, in Warren. Hope to see you to visit you too.
