He knew I hated spiders. He would tape them to the lid of my pallet boxes and put them inside small boxes and "gift" them to me. I will miss him...*

“ Charles Griffey was our son's recruiting sergeant when he joined the U.S. Army in July 1999. In his meetings with our family, Sgt. Griffey was plainspoken and respectful, and he answered our questions and concerns forthrightly and patiently. We feel he was a good "first Army guide" for our son and a blessing to us all. Our prayers are with all of you who mourn him. May he rest in the loving arms of God. -- From George and Jody Foster
