“ It is with a heavy & sad heart that I was not able to come to funeral home. My thoughts & prayers have been with Rex, Candy, Brent, & family. I had a conversation with Charlotte & she understood my situation.

Charlotte, fly high & look over all of us. Your were a WONDERFUL FRIEND. I will always keep our friendship memories in my heart forever. ❤️❤️❤️

Love you

“ Charlotte you are peace now! No more pain, but you left behind alot of people who really love you that will never forget what a great woman you was and how u showed our friend/ like a father how to love again! And I know you will be waiting for him at those pearly white gates. Thank you for showing him, he could love again and be happy!! You was the nicest woman I've ever met, and thank you for the talk over hot chocolate at Johnny's. Fly high and be free! I love you!! RIH

“ I remember doing her yard clean up and the pond. My favorite memory was working on the pond and I was done for the day. Miss charlotte came to check on me. I had a rake and barefooted. I had a snake go across my foot. I was trying to smack with the rake. Miss charlotte literally ran to the pond to help me. We laughed so hard and still did from time to time over it. Rest in peace miss charlotte thank you for life lessons and sharing your love.
