“ I have fond memories of Chris from English class in high school...I loved his dry wit and his refusal to be anyone but himself (even in high school, when that was hard). Very sad that he left this world so early. My condolences to his family. --Julie Fisher

“ Chris,

You were so much fun when we had pizza at Z Place after Bill's funeral, and were so nice to Rebecca and Griffin. I asked about you often when I talked with Alexa and Tara. You made such an imprint on us with your wonderful, effervescent, fun personality, and you have the best parents! We will miss you.

Sincerley,

“ When I think of Chris, it is always with a smile. Memories of the Saturday morning when a 3-year old Chris,asked me while I was changing his newborn cousin's diaper (a little girl), "why does she have two bottoms?"; his endless energy as a toddler and his time spent playing Scrabble with his grandmother. Every memory is joyful. Even in his death, his love of life & humor came through. I can't imagine how hard it is for his family left behind, but I'm sure these wonderful memories will live on forever!

I'm still so totally shocked with Chris' passing. Just doesn't seem real. He was like a real impish member of the family--that wicked humor of his will long be remembered. If there is anything we can do, just let us know.

“ Everything I had in Indiana is gone save a few friends,
Chris was a truly great friend to have. He truly helped to carry me through very tough times in my life with family issues during High School. I have the good fortune to have known Chris and feel he helped bring me to who I am today!
My sincerest condolences to his family.
Celebrate his life for he truly made the difference in mine.
The world is truly a lesser place without him!
Blessed Be!
