“ Chris was a member of our Special Olympics program in Wabash. He always had a smile on his face and was so encouraging to the other athletes. He tried real hard to participate. After his health did not permit him to compete, I would see him coming into the YMCA and was glad to see that smile again. He will be missed by all his friends at ARC, as well as his fellow athletes and coaches. Our sympathy to the family, especially his step mother who took such good care of him. Pat Lynn
