“ When I was a child my Aunt Clotene would cut my hair and my brother and I would get to eat some of her sweet popcorn. I still don't know how she made it...

As we got older, my brother and I would help Uncle Bob and Aunt Clotene bale hay. Those bales were heavy and we piled them high!

As their family grew with June and Dwight, I sensed a deeper happiness in their lives and pride in their children.

Clotene was the last to pass in that generation of my side of the family.

*Fond memories,

“ Dean says one of many memories of Aunt Clotene is when she would call the hogs ...”suey, suey, suey”. Another memory is when she would bring the hogs open the truck and let hogs chase the cats.
