“ Cora was my neighbor and a special friend,I shared a lot of time with her and her family. She helped at Love in the Name of Christ. She made crosses and scriptures out of cross-stich canvas and shared them with everyone,and sent many overseas. She enjoyed helping at Love and met and talked with many people.She liked to visit with the people at Rivergreen Apts,where she used to live, We all really enjoyed being with her. Cora we will miss you, and not forget you. You are in the safety and Love of Jesus now.

“Karen and the Davis family. It sure was a shock to hear that Cora Lee had passed away. Cora told me that she wanted to go to the Bowling family reunion this year. We all will miss her and the family being there.”
