Dear Family of Corinne,

You are in my thoughts and prayers since I have heard of your Mother's death. She and I attended Huntington Catholic High School, and graduated in 1949. Her brother, Pat Landrigan, is my brother-in-law, the husband of my sister, Susan Johnson. They informed me of her death. It was my intention to come to the wake or the funeral, but due to some unforeseeable circumstances, I was unable to come to Huntington at this time.

The Sisters of the Holy Cross here at Saint Mary's, Notre Dame, have prayed for you, your Mother, and loved ones during this difficult time. We will remember you, her family and friends especially tomorrow and in the days ahead.
