Beautiful tribute! My heart hurts so badly for his family. Booger had that contagious laugh and ornery spirit that you just couldn't help but love! He will be greatly missed by the many of lives that he touched and made better by just being a part of it! Rest easy my friend and tell Amanda that I said hello and I love her!

I remember Cory from my aunt's funeral (Barbara Kay Paul.) My Uncle teased me about Cory liking me and I remember saying that it wouldn't ever work out because I live in Texas and our last names just didn't look right together because it would be a Paul Mitchell wedding 😊 Everyone would think it was a famous hairdresser wedding 😊. Cory only seemed shy at that age of 20 almost 21 when it came to talking to the ladies, but he warmed up after awhile and then it felt like you had known him forever! I just learned of his passing and although I didn't know him well, it still hurt all the same because I still have that memory of him wanting to date me and my uncle teasing me (in front of his dad too of all people, whom just played along with it all.) I will cherish that memory and be so incredibly blessed that I met Cory and his family. My prayers for you all as his 44th birthday approaches and by no coincidence I thought of him so close to it. I wish I could have known him better now. He seemed to be such a fun and great personality to be around. I pray you are in Heaven with Jesus and that I will one day get to see you again. ❤️ I pray that his daughter be comforted and have cherished memories of her dad to hold onto now and forever.

“ Beautiful tribute! I remember hanging out when we was teenagers. He would always get me to laugh on even my worst days. Moved away a few years back but would run into him now and then when id come to town. He would inform me of all the big htown events that i missed out on or didnt know happened. Take a walk or just set down in the cazibo by the river and talk. So sad to hear hes no longer here. He was a good man

I said cory you light up like a tree on Christmas morning....he laughted and said shut up cuz! I said ho ho ho I thought he was gonna pee his pants we laughted so hard!! It is gonna be so weird no hearing his moped or seeing him passing by with a lawnmower following behind him. He always had a way to make you laugh! Love you cory!! P.s. I never called him booger, I know it was his nickname but for some reason I always called him Cory I think it was because when we were younger like probably 7 or 8 I never really remember him being called booger so growing up I stuck with Cory.
