“ Words cannot say what a best friend he was. Always kind and gentle, the laughs we shared, and the memories are for a life time. I will never get to tell you who gave you those giant pair of underwear to you for your birthday, I just know it was not me. I really had no clue what was in that package. But I guess you already know now.
The countless times we had playing music, singing and worshipping together are forever in my heart. Now you joined a new band in heaven, the angels are blessed.
Rest in the arms of Jesus until we meet again my friend.

“ For the past 32 years, Curtis and his family have been wonderful neighbors and dear friends. When we first moved into the neighborhood, Curtis welcomed us with kindness and made us feel at home.

Throughout the years, he was always willing to lend a helping hand whenever it was needed.

Curtis was incredibly talented and generous. One of our most treasured gifts from him is the pair of hand-carved leather journals he made for Russ and me. They are a lasting reminder of his craftsmanship, creativity, and thoughtfulness.

We are grateful for the friendship, kindness, and example he shared with so many. Curtis will be deeply missed and fondly remembered. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family during this difficult time.
