“ We called you Cindy..our cousin and playmate. I remember you being the pretty little blonde girl at family reunions and gathers. My brothers Paul and Ken along with my sister Eve enjoyed many of these special family get together s until we all grew up and moved away. My sincere heartfelt prayers to God for this untimely death of a loved family member. Special hugs to Cindy's husband and children. I know she will be sadly missed by us all.

“ Cindy has always been a dear friend. We bonded closer together when we were both pregnant at the same time. We had a race to see who would have their baby first. She won of course, Blake came 2 weeks before my Caitlin. Loved sharing conversations with her never a dull moment. We even had garage sales together miss her so much. Praying for her family today. Heaven gained A very happy angel.
