Dale was born on June 8, 1920 in Huntington, the son of Julius P. and Myra Blanche (Huston) Wall. He was a 1938 graduate of Union Township High School and served as a tech sergeant in the United States Army during World War II. He married Reva M. Campbell on January 3, 1942 in Union Township; she preceded him in death on April 29, 2013 after 71 years of marriage. His vocations were farming and carpentry in Union Township all his life, and he was a member of Union Church. He especially loved gardening, woodworking, and metalworking. He was also a member of American Legion Post #85 and VFW Post #2698.

Survivors include sons Dennis D. Wall of Huntington and Dwain E. Wall of Peru, five grandchildren, Shawn Wall, Jarrod Wall, Seth Wall, Shelby Wall, and Sable Yrjanson, and two great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his parents, wife, a son, Deric J Wall, brothers Eldon B. Wall and Harold Wall, and sisters Josephine A. Pressler and Marcille Wall.

“ Dwain:
Did not know your dad but he must have been a great man to raise such a fine son like you. I am sure he would have known my high school coach Boag Johnson who was also from Union. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time.

“ Your family was so blessed to have this gentleman in your lives. I enjoyed reminiscing through my cards and messages to Dale the last several years. Many years at Wall reunions brought our families together and provided time to share with one another. My sympathy to your family.

“ So sorry to hear of Dale's passing. He always had a ready smile, and a twinkle in his eye, and you just never knew what he was really thinking.

All I remember, if there was anything to be built, any way that there was help needed, he suddenly appeared, and helped "save the day". What a wonderful life he led.

Well done, thy good and faithful servant.
