“ I was so sorry to hear of Darren's passing, back in the '80s we were very close and I considered him one of my brothers. I'll never forget that giant catfish you caught out of Little River and tried to cook it up and eat it and it was so nasty. Love you brother❤️😭

“ My very first memory of Darin was when a "new" bully came into our neighborhood. He kept bothering us and kept trying to pick a fight. Darin said, "ill fight you right now"! He proceed to punch the kid (bigger than both of us) in the jaw, and we never saw him in our neighborhood again! 🙏🙏🙏 Honestly though, there are way too many to share. Bowling, baseball, fishing...just hanging. Darin was truly one of the kindest souls that I've ever known. RIP MY FRIEND!! until we meet again...

“ Darin was one of my first patients as a graduate nurse. I remember him walking up and down the halls with his IV pole in one hand and in his other was an arm of an older man who had had a stroke. Both of them did this for almost 2 weeks. So Great to see the kindness and compassion he shared with others❤️ RIP DARIN VEATCH
