

David Russell Johnson Sr.

February 13, 1937 - December 31, 2014

David Russell Johnson, Sr., 77, of Huntington, died Wednesday, Dec. 31, 2014, at 2:35 p.m. at Norwood Health and Rehabilitation Center, in Huntington.

Mr. Johnson graduated from Camas High School in Camas, WA, where he was active in 4H, speech and debate, drama, baseball, football and track and field. He attended Clark College in Vancouver, WA, and Portland State University in Portland, OR. He owned and operated Rite-Way Business Survey, a retail auditing firm serving the Pacific Northwest, until his retirement at age 66. He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

He was born Feb. 13, 1937, in Camas, WA, to Bennie and Emma Johnson. He married Chlora Diane Draxler on Jan. 16, 1971, in Salt Lake City, UT.

He is survived by Diane, his wife of 43 years, and seven children, Trudy (Clay) Poole and Cheryl (Evan) Larsen of Tacoma, WA, David (Stephenie) Johnson, Jr. and Scott (Jennifer) Johnson of Portland, OR, Sonja Johnson of Norwood, MA, Gwen (Chris) Beluschak of Huntington, and Colleen (Steven) Johnson of St. Petersburg, FL. He is mourned by two surviving brothers, Stanley (Sharon) Johnson of Puyallup, WA, and Philip (Nancy) Johnson of Portland, OR. His brother Darrell Johnson preceded him in death. He has 7 grandchildren, Rozi and Lewis Larsen, Camille and Trent Dawson, Adam and Sophia Beluschak and Gavin Johnson. Another grandchild is due in February, 2015.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, Jan. 10, 2015, at 3:00 p.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Huntington, with arrangements by Bailey-Love Mortuary. Interment will be at the Mt. Hope Cemetery in Huntington.

Cemetery Details

Mt. Hope Cemetery

1700 West Park Drive
Huntington, IN 46750

Previous Events

Service

JAN 10. 3:00 PM (ET)

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints
1190 W 500 N
Huntington, IN 46750

Tribute Wall

“Dad, I love you ❤️❤️❤️! I never thought I would miss you so much so soon.
Trudy

The Troll - January 02, 2015 at 12:50 PM