“ I sat and talked with Delbert a few times at Heritage when I went there to visit a relative. He was a good man and I will miss him sitting in the lobby waiting on the newspaper in the afternoons. His family will be in my prayers and may he rest in peace. God Bless.

“ Delbert was a kind and loving man who always wanted to know how you were doing. I wasn't around him that much, but that is what I remember. A farmer through and through who new something about hard work.

“ So sorry to hear of his passing. He and Beulah were special people in my childhood. I would ride my bike or pony to their house sometimes daily and spend hours visiting with them and feeding cows & sheep. Living in the country with no neighboring kids to play with, they became some of my best friends. I no longer live in Huntington but did run into Delbert about 10yrs ago at the 4h fair. It was so good to catch up with him and he was sharp as a tack. Many blessings to his family. I am sure he is beaming being reunited with his bride. ❤️❤️❤️ Andrea Haselby (formerly Andrea Hanson)

“ I worked at heritage as a dietary aid and would spend a lot of time listening to Delbert tell me stories of his life and his accomplishments. He was the sweetest man i have ever met. I am grateful i had the chance to meet him and build a connection with him. I wish the best for his grandchildren and hope you know he talked fondly of you all.

“ I want to let Lana and family know what a pleasure it was to care for Delbert and get to know him while he was with us at the Heritage. He was a unique individual in every sense of the word! I know you have a wonderful place in heaven! Thank you Delbert for sharing your faith and God's word with me so often. Rest in peace with our Savior!
