“ I miss you Grandma...I'm sorry I took time for granted. I just never imagined life without you...

Now I am left with the guilt and pain of not being around as much as I should have been. I wish I could go back and change it...spend more time with you, ask more questions...

Dad still thinks of you every day and misses you terribly.

Fly with the angels Grandma...I love you.

“ I'm certain this is the person I knew when I was much younger who lived on Grayston Avenue in Hgtn. She made a chocolate rice dessert that was outta this world. She was always kind to me when I visited Mary and Joe. You have my condolences.

“ Worked with Delfina at Wabash magnetics in the late 80's. A great woman, Only time she would say something is when you didn't supply her with the parts she needed to make rate! RIP Delfina. Thank you teaching my young cousins all the good things in life!
