“ Donald K Coffman was my uncle. I always knew him as uncle Kieth. As a child I remember at holidays he always had a joke or a funny story to tell. As I got older I came to understand more about the pain those stories were covering. He was an inspiration to me and always made me feel understood and special. I will miss those visits. Thank you for your service and for being my uncle!!

“ I remember meeting Don the first time.
It was 1968 or 69 I was fishing at the Idle Hour.
He came down and said mind if I fish with ya.
Lot's of great memories.
Prayers to the family and friends
