“ Doris was always laughing, unless you came up from the creek after making mud pies. Especially when she was expecting company. My family all loved Doris. ❤️

We lived on Seminary and often visited her. We are very sadden by your huge loss. She spoke very fondly of her husband, children, grandchildren, great-grand children. She would often say she lost count of how many. She would color pictures by numbers for our refig. She would talk of her pug dog and that dog was such a treat! We would write to her, even though we live in FL now. She was a fighter. All those medical battles she rose to the challenge and defeated death so many times. She was truly blessed.
