“Doris was my mother. We did not always see eye to eye. But she always was there for me bad or good.. I could use her as a verbal punching bag and at the end of it would tell me we're I was wrong. Still the only woman to put me in my place. I'm haveing a hard time letting you go. Now looking back on all these memories makes it some what easier to get through the day

“Beth was my grandma, it's been awhile since she passed but I still remember her. She was battling cancer and told me she was getting better, I guess she did considering she's in peace now. Not all my memories of her are good, but I still remember me and my older sister watching supernatural with her and talking about which boy was cuter, or her watching as me and my sis danced to the theme song of song glitter girl superhero cartoon. I miss you mamaw, you're forever in my heart ❤️

“I remember being really young and going to the upstairs apartment on center street in Warsaw. Aunt Dodo, Rosie and Beth. Rosie would buy bags of colored marshmallows and Beth and I would take them. We would hide in a corner and eat them til our stomachs hurt. You were one of my first friends. I love you cuz!
