

Edward J. Gargiulo

May 8, 1916 - February 22, 2012

Edward Gargiulo, 95, died Wednesday (February 22, 2012) at the Tipton House, Huntington in the company of his immediate family.

He was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, and married Anne Pastore in 1945. The couple moved to North Arlington, New Jersey in 1954 where he was a painting contractor, and retired to Brick, New Jersey in 1986. He relocated to Huntington in January 2011 after the death of his wife in 2005.

Gargiulo served in the US Army from 1941-45, and was a member of the 8th Field Artillery Group and the 8th Tank Destroyer Group under Generals Patton (3rd Army), Hodges (7th Army) and Simpson (9th Army).

He was a parishioner of St. Martha's Catholic Church, Mt. Pleasant, New Jersey where he was the lead usher for several years.

Survivors include brother Albert of Ossining, New York; son Richard and daughter-in-law Kay (nee Zurcher) of Huntington; son Joe of Cotati, California; grandsons Robert (and wife Danielle), Matthew and John; and fourteen nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by brothers Louis, Anthony and Alfred, and sisters Louise, Theresa, Vincenza, Carmella, and Gloria.

Gargiulo enjoyed spending holidays with family; watching his beloved New York Yankees; and volunteering as a member of the Knights of Columbus, Italian-American, and Elks Club.

Visitation is from 4:00-8:00 pm, March 2 at O'Brien Funeral Home in Brick, New Jersey. A funeral mass is scheduled for 10:00 am, March 3 at St. Dominic's Catholic Church in Brick, New Jersey, followed by interment at Ocean Memorial Park, Toms River, New Jersey. The Tipton House is planning a memorial service at a later date.

Bailey-Love Mortuary handled the local arrangements.
