“ I have so many memories from my childhood with your family and I'm not sure where to begin. We were so close and inseparable when we were growing up it's like our families were joined together as one big family. If us kids weren't at my house then we were at yours , we shared parents the Bakers and the McDonald's you guys were mine and mine was your kids.. They say God calls his greatest treasure home and Flonnie my dear you were a rare jule .. The labor of love you poored into raising your family so effortlessly , never without complaining or a harsh word showed your true character as a human being . I keep thinking of that painting that always hung in your bedroom when I was younger .I remember wishing I was that girl in that painting.I always thought it was so beautiful and would admire it every time I seen it. It was a beautiful hand painted ballerina striking a pose I am going to think of you in heaven dancing on a cloud in that same pose ever so graceful just like the woman you were to me here on earth.. They say God calls his greatest treasures home and you my dear are a rare jewel.Till we meet again Momma Flonnie you will always be in my heart. I loved you then, I love you still, I always have and I always will!!! Love Cheryl Baker/ Smith
