“ It is with great sadness that I write you today. I am a nurse who took care of your mother several times at Parkview Huntington Hospital. I cared deeply about your mother. I enjoyed her sweet, kind voice. She was always so appreciative of everything we did for her, even though it was my pleasure to have cared for her and loved to be able to help her. The news came to me just a day ago and I was at work. I was wanting to come to the viewing, but had to work. I was unable to attend today, so I wanted to let you know I was thinking of you all and my deepest sympathy goes out to you. Your mother will be greatly missed. I know she is no longer in pain and is dancing with Jesus. Oh, how wonderful that is, someday we will meet again and what a joyous day that will be! God sent me here to care for the ill, and it is the gift he has given to me. The hard part about that is, it makes it difficult when they pass away. But with God beside me I get through each day. You also will go on and get through each day, only because God will be walking right beside you each step of the way. I will continue to pray for you all and that God wraps his arms around you and comforts you in the time you need him the most. My heart is aching for you all and I know there are no words to bring her back or ease the pain, but I know God can strengthen us and help us through difficult times in our lives. So, I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless you all.
