“ My friend, may you rest in peace, it was a pleasure meeting you and working together from time to time. I really enjoyed seeing you when you were in town and thanks for all the breakfasts you brought me, and the long talks we had, in the many years we knew each other. God Bless you and take care of your family. Love Always Rachel (Wildgrandma)

“ I have so many great memories of Lavon coming down here to FL to PU loads of honey along with his pal Tony starting 23 years ago. He always came by the office and neither one of us were in any hurry to leave. We would just talk about anything and everything and he would get his squeeze bear of honey and leave. I wish I could have had a chance to say goodbye. My sincere sympathy goes to Lavon's family and friends.

“ Von always had a smile on his face and on Tuesday when I saw him it was no different, I still got a smile from him. He was a kind gentle soul that everyone that had the privilege of knowing him I think would agree that you just couldn't help but like him. Von you've gone to a better place now with no pain or sorrow. I'm sure you're up there riding that Harley or on that boat and having a wonderful time. You've got your wings now you can fly like the wind. God Bless you my friend.....
